

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, August 9, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Lucas expected to lead USM

Musgrove opens door to state

Craft-Co named top Miss. exporter

States seek ways to bring down cost of medicine

Editorials

Crime fighting: Police, citizens must join forces

Bad fish: Warning signs a minimal effort

King Edward: Saga still moves at a snail's pace

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

County contests $21M MDOT bill

Undercover Taylor sees true motives in Vieques

Taylor on the issues

USS Cole repairs to cost $250M

Dirty coast earns Louisiana a 'bum'

Delta to post signs to warn fishermen

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Lott says he has no plans to run for governor in 2003

Redistricting plan stumping legislators

Measured in degrees -- Mississippi loses graduates to jobs

SID SALTER: Musgrove exhibits signs of political schizophrenia

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

County's mapping system to be model for state

Gaming tax for teacher raises an idea lawmakers might want to consider

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• Shazam! Gov. Gomer's doing business again — Salter

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

College Board to formally name Lucas to lead USM today

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Selectmen discuss redistricting at meeting

stateline.org

Louisiana Is Setting A Poor Example
Mississippi Agency Offers Home-Buying Classes
Mississippi Food Stamp Plan Questioned

The Clarksdale Press Register

Delta key in redistricting proposals
CHIP offers free child insurance

The Bolivar Commercial

Musgrove says education's his No. 1 priority in talk here

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Delta to get warning signs about pesticides in fish

Mississippi Business Journal <http://www.msbusiness.com/breaking.php>

FIHOP now available for home building/rehabilitation
King Resources drilling new Texas well, others planned
MAMA holding coming-out press conference

Magnolia Report

MBJ: 'moderate and conservative Democrats have no home in a party dominated by white liberals, black radicals and trial lawyers...it's a good time to be a Republican in the Magnolia
State